DETAILED ACTION

Claims 53-63 are pending in the present application.

Response to Amendment

New claims 53-63 are rejected under 35. U.S.C. 103 over Naughton in view of Breitbart for the reasons already of record in the Office action mailed 16 June 2004. Applicant argues that manipulation of chondrocytes often causes them to de-differentiate to fibroblasts. Applicant also argues that neither Naughton nor Breitbart teach "how to prevent the de-differentiation of chondrocytes after either transfection or seeding, let alone both." In support of this argument, Applicant has filed an opinion declaration by Dr. Gordana Vunjak-Novakovic, Ph.D. These arguments are noted, however, not found persuasive.

In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to teach that the chondrocytes do not de-differentiate into fibroblasts after seeding. Application should note that this feature relied upon is not recited in the rejected claims. Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

The declaration by Dr. Vunjak fails to overcome the rejection for the reasons above. Additionally, the declaration fails to provide any data supporting a conclusion of unexpected results. It is applicant's burden to demonstrate unexpected results over the prior art. See MPEP 716.02, also 716.02 (a) - (g). Furthermore, the unexpected results should be demonstrated with evidence that the differences in results are in fact unexpected and unobvious and of both statistical and practical significance. Ex parte Gelles, 22 USPQ2d 1318, 1319 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1992). Moreover, evidence as to any unexpected benefits must be "clear and convincing" In re Lohr, 137 USPQ 548 (CCPA 1963), and be of a scope reasonably commensurate with the scope of the subject matter claimed, In re Linder, 173 USPQ 356 (CCPA 1972).

Art Unit: 1636

In the instant case, there is no comparative data to the closest prior art for the evaluation of any possible unexpected results over the same.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
